Check Passer Sent To Eldridge Home

Lucien J. Telles, 22, of Vallejo, bad check passer, was committed to the Sonoma State Home at Eldridge yesterday by Superior Judge Donald Geary. Telles was arrested on a Greyhound bus here early in January after he had cashed a $15 check at a local Purity store. At the time he was accused of cashing bad checks in Sacramento, Napa, Petaluma and Stockton, as well as Santa Rosa. Telles' case has been continued from last Friday, when an adverse report was given by the probation officer. A warning that he must comply with the rules at the state home or be returned here and sentenced to prison was given Telles by Judge Geary.
